

PRESIDENT FOUND OK BUT URGED TO REST

'Continuous' Gift is Given to Aid Chest

All Admissions to Braemer Project Going to Charity

Palm Springs Community Chest yesterday afternoon was "handed" an advance gift that may stretch on for several months.

Norm Waters, president of Desert Braemer, a cooperative apartment development near Tamarisk Country Club and Thunderbird, in addition to his personal contribution, offered to place all admissions to the model apartment now being completed at Tahquitz Drive and South Palm Canyon Drive at the disposal of the Chest.

GEORGE BRALEY, treasurer of the same project, accompanied Waters to the headquarters of the Community Chest and made a personal contribution and quickly consented to the plan of turning over all admissions of those viewing the model apartment to the Chest.

Among those present who accepted the generous offer was Dave Margolis, president of the Community Chest; Frank Bennett, campaign chairman; Mrs. Helen Staley, member of the advisory board, and Tom Kieley, chairman of the advance gifts committee.

THE PLAN WAS conceived by Waters who remembers that a sizeable sum was collected in admissions from persons who viewed a model home in Los Angeles.

"I feel that the same can be accomplished here. The model of the cooperative homes that will be open to the public next Saturday will be as great an asset as the model home in Los Angeles. In that city people paid one dollar for admission. Here we will only charge fifty cents with all admissions turned over to the Community Chest."

ACCORDING TO tentative plans, voluntary workers for the Community Chest will be situated at the entrance to the model apartment and collect the admission price of fifty cents.

These workers will be stationed there during the opening hours of the model and will have nothing else to do but collect admissions.

"It is believed that in this manner a great number of visitors to Palm Springs will aid the drive for Community Chest funds who ordinarily never contribute to the local drive," was the opinion of Waters.

BENNETT VOICED the hope that local residents who may visit the model home and who annually contribute handsomely to the Community Chest will do so again this year when so much more money is needed in our fast growing city.

"And," Bennett added, "don't throw that letter away seeking your contribution to the advance gift campaign. This is still the backbone of the entire Community Chest drive."

Heard here today of a fine bit of Hoovering (Edgar get your man kind). A man who was wanted by the police had been photographed in six different positions, and the pictures were circulated among the police. The chief in a small desert town near here wrote headquarters a few days later, saying, "I duly received the pictures of the six miscreants whose capture is desired. I have arrested five of them; the sixth is under observation and will be taken soon."

PRESIDENT'S CONDITION FOUND GOOD BUT HE IS URGED TO REST

By MERRIMAN SMITH
United Press White House Writer

GUTTYSBURG, Pa. (UPI)—

President Eisenhower's doctors reported today that his recovery from his heart attack is "excellent and encouraging." But they said he should take a rest in the South, probably starting late this month.

Dr. Paul Dudley White, famed Boston heart specialist, who examined the President for 90 minutes this morning, also said it would be mid-February before physicians can tell whether Mr. Eisenhower has made a complete recovery.

As for the President's political future, White said:

"The future rests in the laps of the gods as it more or less does with all of us. . . .

"With average luck and common sense care, it is possible for the President to live for years and be fully active."

White would not say whether he believes Mr. Eisenhower will be able to run for reelection. He said his decision the President will have to make for himself and that he (White) has no political prognosis to offer.

Plans for a southern trip, according to White and Press Secretary James C. Hagerty, have not been completed. But the probability is that Mr. Eisenhower will leave Washington shortly after Christmas for Augusta, Georgia, one of his favorite resorts.

White said the southern trip was indicated because Mr. Eisenhower has been unable to get the medical cally desired exercise here due to cold and inclement weather.

When Mr. Eisenhower visits Augusta, he lives at the Augusta National Golf Club. Asked whether this would mean Mr. Eisenhower would be playing golf in the South, White said the President's golf probably will be limited to chipping and putting.

White did not envision Mr. Eisenhower playing a regulation 18-hole round of golf until sometime in the Springs when the President is expected to return to Augusta.

White last examined the President in Denver on November 7. He said today that in the six-week interval, the President showed "no symptoms" of heart deterioration.

"His general health is good," White said.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.), today called on his old investigating subcommittee to "resume efforts to expose the Communists who are still in government."

McCarthy also renewed his attack on two Senate subcommittees which he said have sought to "discredit anti-Communist security measures by means of ridicule, unfair emphasis and downright misrepresentation."

He made public a letter to Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.), his successor as chairman of the Senate Investigating Subcommittee, charging that the only Senate committees under Democratic leadership "dealing with the Communist-in-government issue are directing their fire at those who are attempting to prevent Communist infiltration."

McCarthy charged that the Senate Constitutional Rights Subcommittee and the Government Employees Security Subcommittee "are deliberately portraying the security program as a ruthless, bungling Gestapo-like operation, and this distorted picture is being passed on to the public with great gusto by the left-wing press." Both subcommittees held hearings this Fall.

He said the McClellan subcommittee, on which he is ranking Republican, "has a clear duty to attempt to repair the damage done" by the other two subcommittees.

THE NEW TRUCE . . . violation charge against Israel came as the U. N. Palestine truce team promised a report within the next two days on a bloody Israeli raid on Syria to help the Security Council decide whether it should punish Israel.

Syria demanded strict economic sanctions against the Jewish state. But sources close the Israeli government in Tel Aviv expressed belief that no non-Arab member of the United Nations "except possibly Britain and Russia would support the Syrian demands."

Response to the appeal seeking a home for a 16-year-old boy contained in this column two days ago indicates that there are many in this little town of ours who have compassion.

Paul Summit, youth guidance director for the Unified School District is presently studying several applications but he informs me he can use a few more, perhaps not for this boy but for other children who are in need of foster homes.

ABOUT THIS BOY In particular, let's recap what was written about him the other day. He is industrious, works after school and weekends. He is an orphan and has been living with two aged grandparents. The grandfather is ill. The trailer in which the three are presently living only accommodates two. Doctors have advised that absolute quiet must prevail in this tiny trailer. There is no room for the boy who is a B-plus student and according to Summit a good boy. Furthermore, Summit does not wish to turn the boy over to Juvenile authorities believing that somebody here in Palm Springs may want such a boy whom they may ultimately adopt. In other words, find a permanent home for him.

Thanks for all your calls. But call Paul Summit at the Unified School District and talk to him about this boy and other youngsters he may have now or will have in the future seeking a temporary foster home.

BOB HOWARD, owner of Howard Manor, will be home this Sunday, Bob Higgins of the Higgins-Ladd hardware company informed me. Howard, as many of you may know, underwent major surgery in Santa Monica recently.

I am utterly amazed at the great number of people who are doing their Christmas shopping in Riverside. Santa Bernardino and Indio. Prices are just as low here, believe me when comparisons of the things purchased are carefully inspected. Then there is the cost of driving one's car for long distances.

COMES AL ROSE with the thought that more can be done for our teenagers in this community.

"I'll put up $5,000 as a starter with which to build an ice-skating rink. Believe our kids would go for that in a great way. Also many of our adults too." Good idea. Just imagine ice-skating on the desert!

Ella Fitzgerald currently starring in the Starlite Room of the Chi Chi is absolutely a sensation. My impressions of her and that of many on opening night is that she is a "tide of musical delight." Her simple delivery of songs, the completely melodic manner in which she expresses her numbers has made her a delight to hear across the nation. Believe me, an evening listening to her is an evening more than well spent.

And Ruby of The Dunes sure missed a party the other night at Jimmy van Heusin's house. It too, was a delightful affair—all men, and that may have been the reason for the good time had by those who were present. The all men part, I mean.

ONE PARKING FINE LEADS TO SECOND IN COURT JAMS

REDDING (UPI) — Judge Joseph F. Aleck Jr. complained today that the courtroom jam caused by his cramped quarters is creating a serious problem.

"Some motorists have been detained so long paying parking fines that they have another ticket by the time they get back to their cars," the Judge said.

Pier Angeli Loses Jewels to Burglar

LONDON (UPI) — Thieves stole jewelry valued at $28,000 from the apartment of American crooner Vic Damone and his movie star wife Pier Angeli last night, police reported today.

Bonus Offer to Unions Term'd Company Bribe

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The International Union of Electrical Workers said today an offer by Westinghouse Electric Corp. to give 56,000 striking employees a $100 Christmas loan was a "bribe" aimed at breaking a solid strike front.

"The Westinghouse offer is a recognition that its back-to-work movement has failed," IUE Secretary-Treasurer Al Hartnett said.

"They have offered a bribe," Robert Nellis, chairman of the IUE-Westinghouse Conference Board, said the union will "neither recommend nor reject" the offer.

"We want some time to examine it for tricks," he said.

GWILYM A. PRICE, company president, said the money to help provide a "decent Christmas" for strikers' families could be repaid without interest in "modest installments" when the walkout is over.

"We recognize that some people may feel that we are prolonging the strike by subsidizing the strikers," Price said. "We don't think so."

He added that employees could accept part or all of the offer. The money will be distributed to employees applying for loans at plants starting Monday.

Price said the holiday loans would be available additionally to non-striking workers furloughed as a result of the walkout and strikers who have returned to work. It was estimated up to 70,000 employees would be eligible.

THE IUE CALLED 44,000 employees at 30 Westinghouse plants out on strike October 17. The United Electrical Workers Ind. called its 11,000 Westinghouse members out on strike a week later in a similar dispute over wages and length of contract.

The Westinghouse offer also drew a blast from Daniel Margerit, president of UE Dist. 6.

The proposal, "to say the least, is inconsistent," he said. "However, it seems that consistency is not a Westinghouse virtue."

In making the offer, Westinghouse said it could "see no reason why the deadlock over terms of a union contract should mean a bleak Christmas for thousands of children who would never quite understand why Santa passed them by."

Federal Mediator John R. Murphy met with company negotiators Friday to find a "new angle" for a basis of future negotiations.

"Some motorists have been detained so long paying parking fines that they have another ticket by the time they get back to their cars," the Judge said.

SMART BURGLAR STEALS TWICE TO MAKE ONE GOOD

HALF MOON BAY, Calif. (UPI) — Thad L. Graves complained to police Friday that a burglar took 50 pounds of hamburger from his deep freeze and fed it to his kennel of wolfhounds to keep them quiet while he stole 75 parakeets from Graves' aviary.

VOICE of the DESERT

(Editor's Note: Ray Hicks, Riverside county auditor, answers today's question to the Voice of the Desert from a Desert Sun subscriber. The question was: What are the duties of the Riverside county fiscal officer, and functions of his department? The answer of necessity is of more length than usual, and will be divided into two parts, the second part appearing next week....)

By RAY HICKS
Riverside County Auditor

Riverside county's fiscal officer or department of finance is the county auditor. His functions and powers could be described as follows:

County auditor is the fiscal officer, accounting officer, auditor and paymaster. He keeps accounts showing county, school district trust financial transactions; examines and allows or rejects claims against county school and special district funds; prepares and issues warrants (checks) on the county treasury for payments allowed by him, or by others having authority to direct him to draw warrants; audits past transactions of the courts; tabulates departmental budget requests for consideration by the board of supervisors; classifies and tabulates assessor's property valuations for tax rate purposes; applies rates after fixing by board of supervisors, to individual properties, computes the taxes and enters special assessments for cities.

The county fiscal calendar is:

Fiscal year	July 1 thru June 30
Notice to Departments ordering budget request	Mid-March
Budget forms to Departments	Mid-April
Budget requests return to Auditor for tabulation	Mid-May
Preliminary Budget Hearings	Mid-June
Printed Preliminary Budget available to Public	August 10
Final Budget Hearings	Not later than August 20
Budget Adoption	Not later than August 30
Setting of tax rate	Not later than September 1
Assessment of Property	1st Monday in March to last Monday in May
Tax payments	1st Installment due 11/1—Delq. 12/10 2nd Installment due 2/1—Delq. 4/10
Financial report to State Controller	On or before October 1

Your County Budget for this year 1955-56 is $20,118,804.00 including reserves and excluding Schools and Special Districts as compared to the following cost for the past 5 years.

1954-1955	$16,391,198.73
1953-1954	$16,362,716.13
1952-1953	$15,045,108.27
1951-1952	$14,059,955.85
1950-1951	$13,606,140.32

Our county assessor is elected by you, the voters. He appoints his deputy assessors and, as many of them with little or no experience, he has a training school.

The county assessor uses scientific methods in assessing your property once a year between the first Monday in March and the last Monday in May at 50 per cent of his appraised value. You have the right of appeal on the first three Mondays in July each year.

The valuation of property made by the Assessor is the basis for the county tax rate as well as the city rate. The per capita assessed valuation based on the State reports for 1953-54 is $1,510. This county ranks 35th in the State. The County assessor as well as the State Board of Equalization attempt to equalize the assessments among the cities. Also the State Board assess all the utility companies, as well as being a board of review.

Your treasurer is elected by the voters. He is under bond and has custody of all county, school, trust, and most special district funds.

He deposits funds with various banks at his discretion so long as the county funds on deposit do not exceed the banks combined total of capital and surplus. The banks must cover the deposit by 110 per cent with eligible bonds. The county receives 1½ per cent interest on its inactive deposits.

The treasurer expends funds in his custody by order of the county auditor. There is a cash count on the first Monday of each month by the auditor.

The State does not supervise the treasurer except in relation to special state funds on deposit for specific purposes (such as State Fair apportionment).

REBIRTH OF 'LA PRENSA' — All newspapermen in the free world will rejoice at the restoration of La Prensa in Buenos Aires to its rightful owners. Argentina's Provisional President Aramburu should be commended for so quickly righting the injustice that had been done.

The overthrow of the dictator Peron and the liberation of that once-great newspaper can be attributed in part to the unrelenting campaign carried on by the free press of other countries in opposition to that tyranny.

It has been four and a half years since Peron confiscated La Prensa after a long period of harassment against this symbol of freedom. It proved to be a fatal move. The press of this hemisphere, especially, exposed Peron for the dictator that he was and gave support and encouragement to the suppressed forces of freedom in Argentina who finally broke their shackles.

This should be a sobering lesson to other Latin American dictators who have censored and suppressed opposing newspapers in their countries. When freedom of the press is ended, all other liberties die and sooner or later freedom-loving peoples will revolt to throw off the chains of a police state.

WIRED FOR SOUND

THIS SIDE of The Sun

Jingle Bells, Jingle Bells,
Jingle all the way,
For in January it
Comes reckoning day.

Just one week until Christmas and two weeks until January 1 when those window envelopes come in. But who cares? January is still two weeks away and anything can happen. Besides, many people won't have time to think of anything on January 1 outside of how bad they feel and what did they do the night before?

MET A FRIEND who is indeed in sad circumstances. He lives in a community where they have four-digit telephone numbers as in Palm Springs. He was recently assigned a new number just after he had memorized the old one and so set about devising an aid to his memory so he wouldn't forget. He told me about it this way: "The new number they gave me was 64-0-7. So I figured it out in a fool-proof manner. You see, 6 and 4 are 10 and '0' stands for 10 so I have 640. That's three digits. So I subtract them from 10 and I have '6'. 6-4-0-7. Simple isn't it? Too simple, because the next time I met him he said he had an emergency call and tried to contact his wife at home. He put his system to work and everyone got the answer, 'Wrong Number' because he had been dialing 4-6-0-7.

SEEMS TO ME there was something symbolic in that sale of the famed race horse Nashua, the other day. (I'll still take Swaps.) Linked with the name of the purchaser of the horse for one and one quarter millions was "Spendthrift Farms". This item is a belated one. But only week late. Seems last Saturday night when those palm trees flared up on Indian Avenue, Bill Fadden who has an apartment in the Center just adjacent to the Town and Country and above The Sun, had retired early and was lying abed listening to the radio. He heard the fire sirens but idly dismissed their wails until he heard the radio blare forth: "The Desert Sun building in the Center and the Town and Country are ablaze." Fadden thought for a moment and said to himself: That's familiar—it rings a bell—HEK, that's where I am. I'd better get the deuce out of here!" Never slipped on his trousers so quickly.

THIS IS GOING to be a blow to one Donald Klotzbuecher and one C. D. Weigel. Each one of them once a week slaves over a hot typewriter, edging out this column. Only three days a week do I labour my old veteran Woodstock, vintage of the early '40's, in a similar endeavor. But—comes a communication this week addressed to me. As a postscript to another thought, my correspondent said: "I certainly enjoy your column EVERY day." Nice lady but I hope Don and Fred don't take umbrage. On second thought, they won't. Being the time of year it is, they'll probably take—Tom and Jerry.

TOKYO — Japanese Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu in a policy statement at the opening session of the Diet:

BUENOS AIRES — Dr. Alberto Gainza Paz on his return to Argentina to take back his confiscated newspaper La Prensa:

"I am returning to this country to meet my friends, relatives and countrymen after an exile of four years brought on by the terrible dictatorship of ex-President Juan D. Peron."

NEW YORK — Dr. Alberto Gainza Paz, former editor and publisher of La Prensa, on the decision of the Argentine government to return the confiscated newspaper to its rightful owners:

"It is wonderful news for all of us who have worked, and will work again, on the newspaper which served Argentina from 1869 to 1951. I believe all my countrymen will consider the return of La Prensa good news for them, too, because a part of our great national tradition is the people's right to know what only a free press can tell them."

CHICAGO — Republican National Chairman Leonard Hall, answering criticism that GOP leaders are pushing President Eisenhower in an effort to get him to run again:

"The President does only what his doctors permit him to do."

LONDON — Clement Attlee, who was elevated to the peerage when he resigned as leader of the Labor Party, asked what he would be called:

"Well, I don't know—but I think it had still better be Clem, don't you?"

"I threatened to throw them out of the ring a couple of times."

Washington Report

WASHINGTON — There is a three-fold expansion of foreign spending behind that $1,000,000,000 increase in the military budget disclosed at President Eisenhower's conference with the bi-partisan leaders of Congress.

The two facets of this momentous program are:

$2,000,000,000 more for foreign military and economic aid, for an overall total of $4,400,000,000, next July 1.

$500,000 additional for the "Voice of America", bringing its new budget up to $130,000,000 from $80,000,000.

Significantly, all of the extra goes to the Air Force — and then some.

The Army and Navy are earmarked for new cuts, with a tif money also going to the Air Force for its recently accelerated buildup in planes and personnel. Under this enlarged spending plan, the over-all strength of the armed forces will be raised to 2,906,000, from 2,862,000 with the Air Force getting all of the added 44,000.

The lawmakers listened with interest to this plan. House Democratic Floor Leader John McCormack, Mass., asked how much the military has in unspent appropriations.

It amounts to around $4,000,000,000, replied Defense Secretary Wilson.

"If that's all you've got," said McCormack, "then you are going to have to ask for considerably more than $1,000,000,000 to maintain a $35,500,

CHRISTMAS ON THE DESERT as depicted by Evelyn S. Hutchinson (wife of poet Adele Hutchinson) who is noted the world over for her desert painting. This reproduction of her drawing of Joshua Tree is one of the most beautiful of desert Christmas scenes. Joshua Tree, this year, is holding a pageant of the Life of Christ, with store fronts transformed into replicas of the Biblical town of Bethlehem. Life-size cutouts of persons of the days of Christ will be placed around town, and at night, living persons will portray the Biblical characters in the story of the birth of Christ.

Joshua Tree to Reenact Story of Birth of Christ

JOSHUA TREE — The little town of Joshua Tree will add another feather to its cap this year. Starting on the evening of December 19 and ending on Christmas Eve, this little desert community will re-enact the story of the birth of Christ.

Joshua Tree will be turned into the town of Bethlehem. False fronts will be put on the business shops on the main street giving the town the look of the Biblical town.

DURING THE DAYTIME, plywood cut out figures, life size, will be placed around the town. There will be the wise men, shepherds, the manger, and all the rest.

At 7:30 p.m., the cut-out figures will be taken off the streets and the live pageant will begin. A narrator will read the Christmas story over a public address system.

As the story unfolds townspeople will portray the parts of Mary, Joseph and other Biblical personages. Using the buildings on the main street with their false "Bethlehem" fronts as a stage, the whole story will unfold on a life-size scale.

Tradition Broken by Harry Oliver

THOUSAND PALMS — Harry Oliver, publisher of the Desert Rat Scrapbook, announced today that he is breaking tradition.

For the first time, he is sending an edition back for a second run—an additional 3,000 copies to make it 20,000.

The "Pack Rat" edition has attracted attention throughout the country, with several people asking for pack rats, and a Nebraska resident offering to trade three prairie dogs for a pack rat.

Harry, because of the edition's success, is now pondering whether to go into the pack rat raising business, or stick to publishing his popular five-pager.

The "Pack Rat" edition has attracted attention throughout the country, with several people asking for pack rats, and a Nebraska resident offering to trade three prairie dogs for a pack rat.

Harry, because of the edition's success, is now pondering whether to go into the pack rat raising business, or stick to publishing his popular five-pager.

For the first time, he is sending an edition back for a second run—an additional 3,000 copies to make it 20,000.

Dinner Party on Birthday

Birthday Dinner

Bert Dutcher hosted a few friends with a dinner party in honor of his wife's birthday recently. The dinner was at Thunderbird Country Club with Mr. and Mrs. Herb Burns and Helen Thompson as guests.

Mrs. Lorraine Harper honored her daughter, Natalie, on her birthday with a small dinner party at the Ranch Club Thursday evening. It was Natalie's 12th birthday and a candle-lit cake, brought to the table at the end of the dinner, made the occasion a festive one.

Besides Natalie and her mother, the party included her grandmother, Mrs. Jean Alcalay, and Peg and Bill Rashall and daughter, Kater.

Lions to Hold
Christmas Luncheon
Palm Springs Lions will have their ladies as their guests when the Club has its annual Christmas luncheon at the Chi Chi next Thursday noon.

Now, it shows in everything from sports jackets to evening coats, and at the rate its popularity is spreading, leather bonnets will be plentiful in next spring's Easter parade.

One of the more dazzling of the winter-time leathers is coated with 24-carat gold and made into a variety of apparel—totebags, purses for lounge wear, daytime and evening coats and evening skirts. One New York store features the gold leather in a glamour coat with detachable mink collar, priced at $575.

Running a close second to the gold-coated leather is white, for round-the-clock wear also. Bonnie Cashin, one New York designer, shows oyster white suede in a daytime coat, cut like a coat wrap. It has high slashed sides, mandarin collar, windbreaker pockets and is lined with bright polka-dot fabric.

Billie Gould, fashion director of the Leather Industries of America, said that by Spring, leathers in all the pastel shades will be showing, with the sand and beige tones the top favorites. Leather prints, both floral and paisley, show in early Spring lines.

As for care of the leather apparel, Miss Gould said the best advice is—read the label. Some leathers must be dry-cleaned; others can be washed by hand; still others, so labelled, can go in the machine right along with the rest of the Monday wash.

TURKEY CHEESE DIP
CHICAGO — Leftover holiday turkey combines with tangy cheese spread for a tasty party snack.

Whip a 5-ounce jar of Old York cheese spread until it is creamy and add 1/4 cup of sliced, cooked turkey and a dash of Worcestershire sauce. Mix lightly and serve as a sandwich filling or as a dip for crackers and potato chips. Or, serve as a hot, open-faced sandwich. Just top English muffins or slices of bread with the mixture and broil until it's hot and bubbly.

To give additional flavor to pumpkin, sweet potato or carrot pie, mix in 1/4 teaspoon of grated lemon rind along with the shortening when mixing the pastry.

Fun With Music

"Jingle bells, jingle bells, jingle all the way" ... tiny though she is, this future Miss America already shows she knows there's no music without fun, so fun without music.

The value of music is a fascinating one to a child, and even the very young soon have a natural interest in rhythm and harmony. At such a time parents often have the opportunity to help develop the child's musical abilities by introducing him at an early age to musical toys.

Because children learn by doing, one of the most important considerations in selecting a musical toy is that it be an "action" toy. That is, it should be one that the child can actually play rather than one to which the child only listens.

One of the best of this group are these eight electronically tuned Swiss-type bells made of the best bell metal and tuned to the conventional musical scale. Each bell is encased in lustrous high-impact polystyrene plastic which gives a resonant tone quality and adds beauty through its brilliant colors.

The set is designed to help children actually learn to read music through separate colors, letters and numbers for each bell. These are keyed to corresponding colors, letters, and numbers in the accompanying song book. Each bell then is simply rung in sequence to play a tune.

The child need not be old enough to read notes to have fun with these brightly colored bells, and even the mother who has had no musical training herself can help her child learn to enjoy music by this simple method.

AN AUSTRALIAN design featured in Jantzen's "International Set," this will be among the swim suits modeled in the J. W. Robinson Jantzen show to be staged on the Desert Inn

Swim Suit Style Show in January

For the first time, world-wide flavor and design is presented in a special collection of swim suits for the coming resort and Summer season, to be featured in Robinson's Jantzen show on the Desert Inn grounds, January 5. By Jantzen, world-wide manufacturers, the "International Set" Collection reflects couturier influence and authentic design-inspirations from 11 of the 18 Jantzen design studios located 'round the world.

Executed by famous sportswear designer, Louella Ballerino, the Collection features adaptations from Spain, Italy, France, Chile, Brazil, England, West Germany, Switzerland, Australia, Mexico and Hawaii.

These international fashions colorfully highlight the current trend to more feminine, silhouettes in this type of merchandise. Style emphasis is on the lengthened torso: refined lady-like styling. Necklines are a special focal point — high, wide and squared, accented by contrast halter-type straps. A sensational turtle-neck halter top maillot creation entitled "The Monaco," a French design takes particular honors on this subject. Swim short stylings dominate the scene. Although scattered throughout the collection are seen print-skirted sheaths as well.

Other drama in these swim designs revolve about unique fabrics and use of color. A knit story is most graphically illustrated in the textured tweeds shot with touches of rich color interpreted in delicate floral designs. The new elasticized knits are exclusively Jantzen embroidery, scrolls, Jacquard patterned effects appear in both the cottons as well as figure-hugging elasticized woven sheaths. A fetching nylon lace casts an exotic allure. Native influence is felt in a typically Hawaiian print. By far the greatest fabric discovery of this Collection is the Helena stretch yarn. This yarn originally appeared in hosiery and now has been adapted to use in swimwear by Jantzen into a suit that stretches to perfect fit and clings to the body like a second skin.

The importance of beach ensembles is also seen in the "International Set." "The Lausanne," inspired in Switzerland, is destined to be an all-time favorite. Suit styling is the popular swim-short ensemble with a matching tapered jacket. It's cut from a highly polished cotton fabric that's been steeped in Swiss embroidery. The Mexican suit "The Acapulco," that's gay as a fiesta in its vibrant-colored plaid, a patine ensemble by the mere addition of its gracefully tiered skirt. International flavor keynotes the color story. Hues are vibrant, yet feminine. The deep Aqua blue stolen from the Mediterranean... contrasted with white... promises to be a top favorite. Sophisticated black and a stark white are important. There's a predominance of rose-toned pink... and a fiery orange sunset.

Taking all these things — International inspiration, feminine styling, beautiful rich fabrics, vibrant colors — combining them with the skillful designing Jantzen's famous for — gives you fresh new fashion-rightness at pool or beachsides in 1956.

Choir to Have Christmas Party

The Charles McFarland home of 1347 Paseo de Marcia will be the scene of the annual Christmas party for the choir of the Community Church on Sunday. The festivities will begin after the concert the choir will give earlier in the evening. The traditional exchange of gifts among the members will highlight the entertainment for the party. Thirty-five choir members are expected to be present. Refreshments will be served.

GUESTS AT THE Howard Haddock home this weekend are Robert Haddock, a brother, and George Helix. The visitors are from San Diego and will return there on Sunday.

The evening star hangs low and bright over the towering mountains... appearing in the Christmas sky as another star... or maybe the same one... hung low over another desert town of Bethlehem 1955 years ago... Below it the lighted cross casts a moonlight glow on the mountain slope... above the Village that sparkles with neon jewels... lighted palm trees and street decorations... Christmas is gay in Palm Springs... where we deck out desert boughs with baubles, hang roses and ribbons on be-flocked firs, and pile Christmas packages under palm trees... but as we raise our eyes in the stillness of the night... the true spirit of Christmas strikes a deeper note... that brings peace and serenity and inner joy...

DRAMATIC FINALE of the Fontana of Rome fashion show luncheon at the Racquet Club was this gorgeous black and white satin ball gown with matching cape that circles the throat and fastens in the back. The white cape is lined in black and the dress has black trim. It was modeled by blonde Italian Countess Rea Polonioabli.

BALL GOWNS FROM ITALY

HIGHLIGHT STYLE SHOW

Fabulous ball gowns flown here from Italy especially for the show, were the sensation of the Fontana of Rome fashion luncheon at the Racquet Club yesterday. Fontana is famous for her lovely evening clothes and dresses some of the world's most important women.

Satin and velvet and silk faille fabrics were encrusted with crystal Venetian bea dembroderies and most of the ballgowns had matching evening coats lined with contrasting colors. One was of silver brocade, regal enough for an empress, and one was a special design for Clare Booth Luce. An enchanting white gown was embroidered in pink and white like a wedding cake.

ONE OF FONTANA'S newest color tones is a pale mango.

"Yellow Clusters" was the name of a gray and yellow print cocktail dress with scooped out neckline, which had back interest from its full skirt and its ties at the neckline in the back. A gray and white subdued floral print sheath dress and a short, fitted jacket, lined dramatically in Kelly green.

There were a number of wool and silk combinations and interesting jacket variations.

The Chinese influence was noticeable in several of the gowns shown. They were tight-fitting sheaths with mandarin collars and several were all over embroidery.

THE SHOW OPENED with sports wear from La Tessettore di Capri. Fabrics for these are hand woven by the blind people of the islands, said Madeline Fio Rito, Fontana's American representative, who flew the clothes here and personally emceed the show.

The style show luncheon which filled the main dining room and the Mural Room, was presented by Dorothy Gray Inc., and was a benefit for the newly-organized Women's Auxiliary of the Palm Springs Desert Hospital.

MRS. JOHN KENASTON, Auxiliary vice president, welcomed the luncheon crowd on behalf of Mrs. Charles Farrell, who was out of town and unable to be present.

She announced that the membership drive for the Auxiliary is now open and charter members will be accepted until February 1.

Pat Barbara's orchestra played for the luncheon showing.

Williams Thanks Villagers for Early Christmas Mailing

Postmaster Merritt Williams expressed his appreciation today for the fine response from individuals and business firms to his "Mail Early for Christmas" pleas. He went on to say that the period between now and December 25th is bound to be the heaviest of the year for all postal employees.

The terrific stream of out-going Christmas cards and gifts is now near full flood with a like torrent of incoming mail becoming greater every day. In the next few days the postmaster expects the Christmas mail load to hit its peak and break last year's December 15th record when 51,000 letters were dispatched.

HE SAID, "I KNOW the time has passed to talk about mailing early. For the inevitable last-minute mailers, he suggests that they use air mail for every Christmas card or gift going out-of-town and by all means to get them in the mail today. Even one day's delay at this critical time may mean disappointment for a loved one on Christmas."

There is still time for local deliveries but all Christmas cards should be sent first-class mail to insure prompt delivery.

TO TAKE CARE of the last-minute rush, which always begins when the incoming Christmas mail is greatest, the Post Office will remain open from 8 a.m. until 6 p.m. each week day until Saturday. On Saturday the office will remain open until noon for all business. In the afternoon until 6 p.m., there will be one window open for the delivery of Christmas parcels.

"Now that we are coming close to the end of the big rush, I want to express my thanks for the fine cooperation from everyone," Williams said. "The 1955 "Mail Early for Christmas" campaign will be a rousing success if everyone will just keep up the good work. This year, on Christmas Eve, I'd like to see every mail bag empty and every post office employee relaxing at home."

CONFIDENT LIVING

By Norman Vincent Peale

Love is a Passport

Perhaps the most closely-guarded border in the world today is not along what we have come to call the Iron Curtain, but the border between Israel and her Arab neighbors. And nowhere is this more apparent than in Jerusalem, where a razed strip, a "no man's land," cuts the city in two.

When I was in Jerusalem last year, I went to see the famous Mandelbaum Gate, where armed Arab and Israeli sentries face each other across a narrow piece of ground. I moved forward to see better, when suddenly, one of the guards pulled me back, not too gently. "Don't be foolish," he said. "Only last week, an American was fired on in that very spot where you were standing a minute ago."

I thanked the sentry and moved back. Just then I heard a loud clattering, and there, through the railings on the other side, came an ancient car with a man in it. The car crossed the empty territory and I waited for the shooting to begin. But nothing happened. As it came up to our guard post, I could see that the man in it was wearing a cassock, and when he drove up and got out, I saw that he was a Catholic priest.

He slapped the Jordan soldiers on the back and called them by name. They seemed to know him well, so I asked one of them about him. "Oh, that's Father Patrick," he said. "He's a good friend of ours." Then he pointed to the Israeli sentries on the other side. "They like him. So he can come and go as he pleases."

I finally met this remarkable man who can pass through a gate of hate and be loved by those who guard it. Here, where Arabs and try it in your own life and see that you, that ye also love one another."

Try it in your own life and see that you, that ye also love one another."

The public is cordially invited to attend this program.

Christian Life and Judgment is Sermon Topic

"Our Christian Life in the Light of Judgment Day" is the topic for Pastor Leroy Hass' sermon on Sunday, December 18, in the American Legion Hall, 400 North Belardo Road, at 10:30 a.m.

The text is 2 Peter 3:11-13; these are the words of Peter in verse 11: "Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye be in all holy conversation and godliness."

The Sunday School Christmas program will be held at 6 p.m. Saturday, December 24. Christmas morning services are scheduled for December 25 at the regular hour.

The public is invited to attend any or all of the church's services. "Especially do we invite all Lutherans to come and worship with us during the Christmas season," Rev. Hass said.

Judge Gives Some Saturday Advice

TRUMBULL, Conn., Dec. 18.—Town Court Judge John P. Evans wasn't impressed with reasons given by Eugene H. Dilliston, 28, as to why he was caught driving while his license was under suspension.

Dilliston said his girl friend had forgotten her glasses, and he volunteered to take the wheel of her car. In imposing a $10 fine, the judge said:

"If your girl friend needs glasses to drive, you two ought to sit home on Saturday night and watch Jackie Gleason. Then you'll both be safe."

Congregational Hitch

INDIANOLA, Neb.—A motorist was impressed when he picked up two "hitchhikers" near here. The thumbs were U. S. Rep. Phil Weaver (R-Neb.) and U. S. Sen. Carl Curtis (R-Neb.). Their car had run out of gas.

Church School, Junior Choir to Present Program Sunday

The Children's Christmas Festival for the Church School will take place at St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church at the 9:15 a.m. service tomorrow, December 18.

The students and teachers of the Church School have prepared a Pageant of the Nativity, and the Junior Choir under the direction of Mrs. Alex Hammond will present the musical portion of the program.

Following the service in the church the children and adults will go into the Parish Hall for the Christmas party. Adults and especially parents are invited to attend both parts of the festival. The children will bring a gift for the tree which will be sent to the Episcopal Church Home for Children.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at 8 a.m. tomorrow, the fourth Sunday in Advent. Morning Prayer and a sermon will constitute the 11 a.m. service.

The Rector has announced that the service on Christmas Eve will begin with a Carol Service at 11 p.m. and the Choral Eucharist at 11:30 p.m. Services on December 25 will be at 8 a.m. and 11 a.m.—Holy Communion.

Scouts Start Plans for Archery Meet will center around the church

the children present.

Personally, I believe that the Bible contains the ultimate answers to all questions — and particularly to those great questions which make anyone's $64,000 question seem childish. Turn to the Bible and read the principles which have the answer to problems between persons and between nations: "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." And there we read such great words as: "Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you," and, "As I have loved you, that ye also love one another."

Try it in your own life and see that you, that ye also love one another."

Pakistan Beauty Wins U.S. Permit

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — Former Pakistan beauty winner Ramona Hussey, 26, has received government permission to leave the country voluntarily and apply for a permission to enter as the wife of a U.S. citizen.

The permission was granted yesterday to the beauty who disclosed two weeks ago she had married wealthy San Diego businessman Frank Cardwell, 50, father of the former GI whom she came to this country to see.

Cardwell and Miss Hussey met in 1948 when she came here from India at the invitation of Cardwell and his former wife so their son, Richard, could decide if he wanted to marry her or his hometown sweetheart.

Young Cardwell chose the home-town girl after Miss Hussey came to this country.

Civic Chorus to Present Annual 'Messiah' Program

Tomorrow evening the Palm Springs Civic Chorus, under the direction of Harry Tomlinson, will give their fifth annual presentation.

Child Can Often Tell You What's Troubling Him

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. — Is that child of yours causing you concern by the way he's been acting lately?

"Ask him what's wrong," Dorothy Pisula, a St. Louis, Mo., psychologist recommends. "He is a more able diagnostian than most of us and cuts through to the heart of things."

"He can usually tell simply and directly what is really wrong with him and his situation," Miss Pisula told a workshop on disturbed children at the annual convention of the National Conference of Catholic Charities.

Miss Pisula, who works at the Our Lady of Grace Child Center, said parents should not jump to conclusions that their child is emotionally sick.

"The fact that a child is brought to a child guidance clinic does not mean that something is wrong with him," she said. "At that moment, all that we really have is an adult's acknowledgement that he does not understand his child's behavior."

"In fact the answer may be little else than helping a parent to understand the normal behavior of growing children."

Eight Quakes in Imperial Valley Alarm Citizens

EL CENTRO, Calif. — The lower half of Southern California braced today for possible further earthquakes following a series of at least eight shocks that broke store windows and "rocked whole houses back and forth."

The series of earthquakes of growing intensity shook the lower Southern California area last night within a two-hour period, breaking windows in buildings and causing several residents to sleep outside overnight in the Imperial Valley.

Fire Marshal Robert Lane of Brawley said if the shocks continued and if any more store-windows were broken, it was possible authorities might "call out the National Guard to prevent looting from stores."

AT LEAST SEVEN SHOCKS were felt here and eight in Brawley, San Diego, about 130 miles west of here on the coast, felt several as did Calexico, south of here on the U.S.-Mexican border.

Dr. Charles F. Richter, seismologist at the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena said such a series was not unusual.

He said it was impossible to predict whether there would be further shocks. He pointed out that the Imperial Valley is known for its frequent minor earthquakes.

One Imperial Valley police officer said, "They were pretty hard quakes. They made everybody around here sit up and take notice."

COLUMBUS, O. — Sen. John W. Bricker (R-Ohio), became the first actual candidate for the 1956 Republican presidential nomination yesterday, but his candidacy was only to satisfy a legal technicality.

Ohio's delegation to the GOP national convention in San Francisco next August actually was lined solidly behind President Eisenhower in event the President announces he will be a candidate.

MARILYN MONROE AS SEEN
BY A MOUSE"

This Droodle will no doubt be appreciated by the thousands of people who feel that any view of Marilyn Monroe is a treat. Personally I disagree. If you ask me, people make too much fuss over those Hollywood Actresses. I always say it doesn't matter whether or not a girl has a beautiful face and a gorgeous figure. What is important is can she sit down and hold an intelligent conversation about something I'm interested in, like archaeology or nuclear physics or lint. Matter of fact, I make a point of only going out with girls who are skinny and have weak chins and stringy hair. These girls don't always want to go to night clubs and expensive restaurants, and they love me for what I am — a cheapskate!

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Rep. U. S. Pal. Off.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Fearless Fraley's facts and figures:

Rocky Marciano's opponent for the heavyweight title next June will be Floyd Patterson and, if they can't convince his manager, then it will be a repeat of the Archie Moore affair.

Patterson's manager, Gus d'Amato, is a reluctant man. He doesn't honestly believe that the former Olympic champion is "ready" despite a record of 18 knockouts in 28 professional bouts. Patterson lost only one, to Joey Maxim.

IT IS INTERESTING to note that the 11 boxing writers present at that fight, all bosom buddies of Maxim manager Jack Kearns, voted unanimously in favor of Patterson. But d'Amato, a rarity among punching pilots, refuses to "push" his guy. Despite his reluctance, most observers predict that he will yield to the big money involved and put Patterson in with Marciano. Either way, the Rock wins.

Because he is playing the ball instead of his man, Tom Gola currently is getting his come-uppance in pro basketball. When he was at LaSalle they used the zone defense and he could ball-hawk because somebody else usually picked up his man. Now he makes the occasional spectacular play but the pros are capitalizing on his eagerness to score on him with the "give and go." His all-around play is as good, but he isn't scoring like he did as a collegian. But they all agree he'll "catch on" eventually.

ED HICKEY, the St. Louis basketball maestro, insists that the 12-foot lane is a boon to the big man in the game. "And," Hickey insists, "you can't have a great team unless you get out and get yourself a couple of big boys." Which isn't exactly news.

Darrell Floyd of Furman is a dead ringer for Frank Selvy, Furman's leading collegiate scorer of two years ago. He looks like him, moves like him, and, more important, even scores like him, currently being runnerup to Robin Freeman of Ohio State.

Don't tell Paul Harvey, the former Holy Cross golf captain recently turned professional, that the pro fairway set is a heartless lot.

"When I had a bad round, as example, Mike Souchak gave me heck," Harvey explained. "He said I was playing listlessly. I took heed, too, because I weight 145 pounds and I wouldn't want that 225-pounder getting hold of me." Which beats out one man's opinion that golf pros are among the nicest guys in sports.

Service Teams Clash

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—Two of the nation's top service football teams—the Army's Ford Ord, Calif., team and the Navy's Pensacola Naval Air Station, Fla., squad—were slated to clash today in the third annual Poinsettia Bowl game.

Thunderbird Record Cracked

RECORD SETTING Dr. Bud Taylor, California Amateur Champion, is congratulated by his wife, Shirley, after shattering Thunderbird's course record with a 18-hole score of 62. Dr. Taylor, whose home course is Red Hills in Uplands, shot his phenomenal nine-under-par to eclipse by one stroke the course record set last year by pro Gene Little. He said yesterday that he and Shirley hope to move here as soon as arrangements can be made to resettle his dental practice.

MODERN GOLF

By DALE ANDREASON
Golf Instructor at El Mirador Hotel

Today's lesson is short but very important.

The proper putting grip tension is in the palm of the left hand. If the grip is not firm in the left hand, the putting stroke will be too long and "wristy."

See the right hand on the club in a relaxed manner. Now, as my good friend Bobby Locke would say, caress the grass when you set the putter down behind the ball. Never press the putter into the green or you will lose your putting touch.

When you putt, try to keep the action short on the back stroke and smooth on the follow through. Never look up but listen for the ball to hit the cup.

Sned, who shot a course-record, nine-under-par 64 in the opening round, found a 25-mile-an-hour wind and 35-degree weather much to his discomfort Friday but managed a 70 that gave him a total of 134.

One stroke behind came Leo O. Biagiotti of Willoughby, Ohio, Marv Furgol of Lemont, Ill., Walter Inman of Augusta, Ga., Al Balding of Canada, and Jim Ferree of Winston-Salem, N. C. — all of whom topped Sned's second-round score.

The golfers were expected to tee up in warmer weather today when the field will be cut to the top 60 pros and 10 amateurs. Sned zipped his windbreaker up around his neck and played his second round with hardly a smile or a word to the 750 fans who followed him. He played it safe all the way, apparently satisfied to hold his lead and unwilling to gamble with exceptional shots.

Arnett Leads All Trojan Carriers

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Jon Arnett led all of the University of Southern California's ball carriers with a total of 672 yards gained from rushing, the highest total for a Trojan back since Frank Gifford's 841 years ago.

Combined with his 601 yards rushing as a sophomore in 1954, Arnett now has 1273 yards in two years which placed him 12th in the all-time Trojan ball-carrying ranks with another season ahead to shoot for Ory Mohler's record total of 2028 yards in three years of varsity football.

C. R. Roberts had the highest average per carry among the regulars with a 6.5-yard rate for 72 carries.

MS Squad Drills on Rose Bowl Turf

PASADENA (UPI)—The Michigan State football team arrived by plane yesterday for the Jan. 2 Rose Bowl game against UCLA.

Coach Duffy Dougherty headed the party of 44 players and 63 persons making the trip. The Spartan coach declared he was "very conservative" in his feelings about the game.

Little fired a four-under-par 35-33-68 yesterday to share front spot in the tourney.

Others with 68s were Harry Dee, Driscoll, N. Y.; Bob Duden, Portland, Ore.; Al Feldman, Tacoma, Wash.; Dick Campbell, Los Angeles; Jimmy Clark, Laguna Beach, and Grant Leonard, Los Angeles.

Former U. S. Open champion Duffy Mangrum, Apple Valley, shot a par 72 yesterday.

About one-fifth of the public high schools in the United States have driver education classes.

Comeback Try of Correlation Hits High Spot Today

SAN BRUNO, Calif. (UPI)—Correlation, the beaten favorite in the Kentucky Derby, Belmont Stakes and Preakness, goes to the post in the $35,000 Tanforan Handicap today — taking the big step in his comeback campaign that may still put him among the top money winners of the country.

The big chestnut son of Free

America, who has won two pre-races here since returning to the racing wars, is expected to be the favorite to whip seven other top-notch campaigners in the mile and one-eighth race on a muddy track.

His main opposition may come from Bobby Brocato, but Allied,

Mintaka, Grey Tower, Bassanio,

Author and War Tryst may put him to the test.

At the start of the 1954 campaign, Correlation was rated as the top three-year-old in the country.

He won the $100,000 Florida Derby and the $100,000 Wood Memorial and was expected to romp home in the Kentucky Derby. But something went wrong and he was beaten in all the major stakes he entered last year.

Returning to competition this year, Correlation won a pair of prep sprints and his trainers claim he is in better condition than ever before. He has won purses totaling $18,579 in his campaigning and with the big stakes program coming up at Santa Anita, he has a chance to climb up among the all-time money-winning champions

if he returns to his old form.

The final round, 18 holes, will complete the week-long tourney tomorrow afternoon, and will be celebrated by a victory dinner at the clubhouse starting at 7 p.m. Hosts for the 54-hole championship flight

are Dick Guelich, Bill Worthing and Paul Fron.

Towel Fund

TERRA HAUTE, Ind., 470 — The local YMCA is going to have some new towels to replace some taken 29 years ago. Money for the towels came in a letter from South Carolina which read: Dear Sir: Inclosed you will find $5 to pay for towels I took from the shower room the Summer of 1926. "The Lord has saved me and I want to be ready to meet Him when He comes."

The tree kangaroo, belying its name, spends much time on the ground. It ascends to feed on trees and foliage, to escape enemies and to sleep.

Wasted Time

AUBURN, Me., 042 — Burglars worked night-long to batter apart a safe in a garage only to discover that it was empty and the safe door was unlocked.
